

ACUTE STROKE SERVICES

ENGLAND, WALES & NORTHERN IRELAND

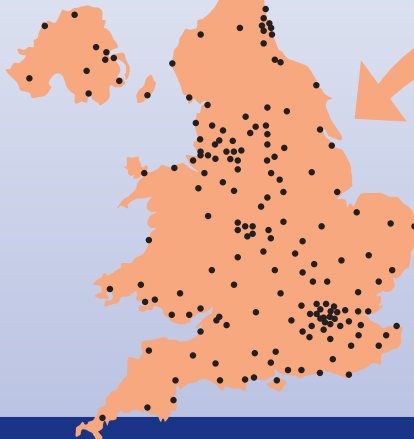

Based on services as of 1 July 2016

85,000

Patient admissions a year

£1.03 BILLION

NHS cost over one year

192
HOSPITALS

1.5 MILLION

Bed days per year

5119

Beds for stroke patients

676

stroke consultants

40%

of hospitals have an unfilled stroke consultant post

Quality of acute hospital stroke care

Needs improving

6%

of hospitals have access to sufficient clinical psychologists

29%

of hospitals have sufficient nurses on duty during the daytime at weekends

31%

of hospitals have at least two types of therapy available 7-days a week

Making progress

51%

of hospitals have a sufficient number of senior nurses

61%

of hospitals seek patient & carer views on their stroke services at least once a year

70%

of hospitals have access to thrombectomy treatment

Getting better

75%

of hospitals have stroke consultant led ward rounds 7 days a week

80%

of hospitals use intermittent pneumatic compression devices for prevention of venous thromboembolism

81%

of hospitals have access to specialist early supported discharge (ESD) services

