

SSNAP

Sentinel Stroke National Audit Programme

KING'S College
LONDON

What is SSNAP?

Easy read article

Click the question below to go to the page!

What is SSNAP?	3
What does SSNAP do with the data?	4
Who does SSNAP make reports for?	4
How much data is sent to SSNAP?	5
Information resources for England and Wales.....	6
Information resources for Northern Ireland.....	7

What is SSNAP?

The logo for SSNAP, consisting of the letters 'SSNAP' in a bold, red, sans-serif font, enclosed within a white square with a teal border.

SSNAP stands for Sentinel Stroke National Audit Programme.

SSNAP measures the quality of stroke care given to patients.

SSNAP measures the structure of stroke services.

Stroke care teams send data to SSNAP about the care given to patients.

SSNAP receive data from teams across England, Wales, and Northern Ireland.

Click here for info about what data SSNAP collects.

Click here for info about how SSNAP collect, store & use data.

What does SSNAP do with the data?

SSNAP compare teams to national stroke care standards and guidelines.

SSNAP create reports.

The reports show what stroke care teams are doing well and what they need to improve.

Click here for info about SSNAP easy access version reports.

Who does SSNAP make reports for?

- Hospitals
- Community stroke care teams
- The Department of Health,
- The NHS
- The general public
- Stroke survivors and their carers.

How much data is sent to SSNAP?

SSNAP is the only source of stroke data in England, Wales, and Northern Ireland.

This lets SSNAP can compare how stroke care is delivered across the country.

100% of acute hospitals in England, Wales & Northern Ireland send data to SSNAP.

90% of expected stroke cases are sent to SSNAP.

Over 1 million records have been sent to SSNAP since January 2013.

Healthcare professionals have voted SSNAP the most effective national clinical audit in the UK.

Information resources for England and Wales

SSNAP have posters to display in hospitals:

Click here for a black and white ward poster.

Click here for a colour ward poster.

SSNAP have leaflets for patients:

Click here for a black and white leaflet.

Click here for a colour leaflet.

Information resources for Northern Ireland

SSNAP have posters to display in hospitals:

Click here for a black and white ward poster.

Click here for a colour ward poster.

SSNAP have leaflets for patients:

Click here for a black and white leaflet.

Click here for a colour leaflet.